"Go to the tabernacle in spirit when you are unable to do so physically, and there pour out your ardent desires, talk, pray, and embrace the Beloved of our souls, even more than if you had been permitted to receive Him sacramentally."

- Saint Padre Pio

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

O my sweet Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all others and above all things. I earnestly desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, I pray that you will please come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there, and unite myself to you with all my heart and soul. I pray that you will never permit me to be separated from you.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Our chapel is available for prayer and adoration from 6:00 AM until 9:00 PM, except for about 30 minutes each day when we close the chapel so it can be cleaned and sanitized. Please practice cleaning guidelines that are posted near the door when you leave.

Also, please make sure the lights are turned off when you leave. Thank you.

A stewardship reflection for the Sixth Sunday of Easter (International Catholic Stewardship Council, May e-bulletin, www.catholicstewardship.com)

Philip understood very well Jesus' words: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." We learn of Philip's devotion to prayer, evangelizing and healing in the region of Samaria; made up of communities that would not be very receptive to the followers of Jesus. Philip is a model steward, living his discipleship day by day in the Lord without counting the cost. Good stewards summon the courage to proclaim the Lord no matter where they are, and to serve Him by ministering to others even under the most adverse of circumstances. As an Easter people, eager to rejoice in the Lord, let us reflect this week on how we are living out our own commitment to discipleship in Christ Jesus.

IN THE ABSENCE OF CONFESSION. . .

Remember your First Confession and being taught we must be sorry for our sins to be forgiven?

There are two types of sorrow (contrition) for sins.

-Imperfect Contrition -- focus on ourselves, fear of even greater punishment. –Perfect Contrition -- focuses on the Other. Not the fear of hell, rather offending One who is all-loving. Perfect Contrition focuses on the relationship rather than the sin, the Redeemer rather than oneself.

Why seek out the Sacrament of Reconciliation?

-Personal abandonment to the Mercy and Grace of God

What about now with the pandemic and “shelter in place?”

Rely on the words of Psalm 103:8, “Merciful and gracious is the LORD, slow to anger, abounding in mercy.”

- With Perfect Contrition, seek the Lord.
- Allow His Grace to penetrate the core of your being.
- Earnestly pray an Act of Contrition. - Resolve to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation as soon as possible.
- Continue to restore your relationship with the Lord.
- Be confident that His Love is greater than our offenses; His mercy is everlasting.

REPORTING ABUSE OR NEGLECT: Our clergy (bishop, priests, and deacons), seminarians, men and women in Consecrated Life, lay staff, and volunteers are trained to recognize and to report any disclosure or suspicion of physical abuse, sexual abuse, sexual assault, or neglect to the appropriate authorities. It is the policy of the Diocese of Lubbock to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to law enforcement. (More information online) Once local law enforcement, or the child abuse/vulnerable adult hotline have been called, information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to Victim Assistance Coordinator Oscar Reyes at (806) 543-9178 or to diocesan officials.
